From the Leiden Gazette April 24.

Vienna, April 12.

THE Provost of the Chapter of Colocza, is come hither with a famous Hungarian Lawyer, to acquaint the Court that all the Nobility on the other side the Tibiscus have have declar'd for his Imperial Majesty, and that the whole Kingdom is dispos'd to do the like provided they may be restor'd to their ancient Privileges, that the King of Poland may be Guarantee thereof, and that the King of the Romans as King of Hungary may swear anew to maintain those Privileges in a general Diet to be call'd for that purpose. They write from Zatmar, that General Glockersberg who commands in that Place, made a vigorous Sally on the Rebels that block it up, and kill'd 600 of them; and that returning into the Town agen he made another Sally at another Gate and cut off 1500 of them; whereupon the rest betook themselves to Flight: He took great part of their Baggage, with much Provisions and 1000 Horses, Mules, Oxen, &c. Thus that Blockade is rais'd.

From the Amsterdam Gazette, dated April 29.

Vienna, April 16. Count Heister the Younger arriv'd here the 16th with Advice, that the General his Father had attack'd a Body of 5000 Rebels near Stulweissenburg, that the greatest part of them threw down their Arms and implor'd his Imperial Majesty's Pardon, and that the rest retir'd into the Town of Stulweissenburg, of which the General made himself Master after a very sharp Dispute. This Action is the more considerable, in that all the Country on this side the Danube is thereby reduc'd to the Emperor's Obedience and clear'd of the Rebels. General Heister has commanded 800 Men to ruin the Bridge the Rebels have over the Danube near Fetwar. 'Tis reported General Palfi, Ban of Croatia, is on the March to joyn General Heister, in order to attack with their united Force the Rebels that are in the great Island of Schurz. The Count of Castelbarco is made one of his Imperial Majesty's Privy Councillors. The Count of Gallas, who is nominated to go to the Court of England in the room of Count Wratislau, is preparing to set out from hence thither. The Elector Palatine continuing still here, 'tis thought he waits to see the Troubles of Hungary compos'd, that he may afterwards make the Campaign with the King of the Romans. The Advices from Tyrol say, our Recruits for the Army in Italy pass continually through that Province; and that they have made sufficient Preparations to oppose the Bavarians should they a second time attempt to invade them. We hear from the Frontiers of Austria, that General Gronselt has receiv'd all the Recruits he expected, and that the Country on that side is in a good State of Defence.

From the Amsterdam Gazette April 25.

Nimes, April 9. We expect the Marshal de Villers very suddenly to succeed the Marshal de Montrevel. The Camisars have Ravag'd the Country about Ufez, and have made great havock on the Lands belonging to the Chapter of this City. We have nothing brought into us from the Country, because all the Roads are infested by the Camisars; which causes so great Scarcity in this City, that Chickens and Pigeons are sold for 45 and 50 Sols a couple. We are told there is a numerous Body of the Camisars in the Neighbourhood of this Town. It was said in our former that 100 of our Townsmen were seiz'd and imprison'd in the Fort; since which 150 more have been seiz'd.

From the Paris Gazette a la Main, April 21.

Paris, April 21. The Marshal de Villars, who is gone to command in the Cevennes, will meet with more Resistance than one would have thought some time ago; for the Camisars are very Numerous, and ravage the Country. This has made the Court resolve to send more Forces thither to extirpate them as soon as possible, that the Troops which now serve there, and which by this new Reinforcement will be made up 12000 Men, may be employed elsewhere.

From the Leiden Gazette April 29.

Leiden, April 29. A small Privateer of Calais, carrying 2 Guns 2 Pattereroes and 30 Men, came to cruise off Scheveling 3 or 4 Days ago, and took 4 Boats that were out a fishing and belong'd to that Place; the Privateer agreed to ransom the Boats for 400 Guilders each, and let them go, but detain'd the Masters as Hostages for the Payment of the 1600 Guilders. The next Morning that Summ was sent to him, but it being in Schellings (Pieces that go in Holland for 5 Stivers and a half, but being of a very coarse Alloy are not intrinsically worth so much,) he would not receive it, but demanded better Money. On his sending back the Schellings, the Fishermen of Scheveling took a Resolution to endeavour to surprise the Privateer, and immediately sent to the Hague to desire the Assistance of 48 Grenadiers of that Garrison, which being granted them, they put them into 3 Boats the same Night at 10 a Clock, and set Sail with a 4th Boat in which was the Money such as the Privateer requir'd. But they were oblig'd to put back agen, because the Privateer was not to be found where they left him, for he had that Evening taken a Fisher-boat of Terhey and was gone far out to Sea in pursuit of another. Yet the next Morning he appear'd off the Maese, standing towards Scheveling; whereupon the 4 Boats set Sail, and that which had the Money on Board got up with him soon; But while the Money was telling, one of the other Boats clap'd the Privateer on board and threw in a shower of Granadoes, whereupon the French cried out Quarter. The Privateer is brought up to Rotterdam, and the Master of an English Vessel that was taken and detain'd by the Privateer for Ransom, had the good Fortune by this accident to get his Liberty.

Falmouth, April 20. Yesterday arriv'd here the Prince Pacquet-Boat in 44 days from Jamaica, who on the 16th instant was chased by a French Privateer of 18 Guns, when she was forced to throw her Boat over-board; and on the 18th was chased by another of 16 Guns, who as she came a long side sprung her Main-top Mast, yet forced the Pacquet-boat to throw over-board 4 of her Guns, and one of her Anchors.

Shields, April 21. We have yet above 100 Sail of laden Colliers in our Port that are not yet sail'd, altho' the Wind is fair, but they want Convoy.

Tarmouth, April 21. On Wednesday last sail'd from hence the Marling Sloop, and under her Convoy 8 Sail of Coasters for Wales and Linn. Yesterday Morning a Pink which had on board 2 Tons of Grocery, was taken by a Privateer of 6 Guns, and the Master Master was carried on board the said Privateer, but before the Enemy had time to Plunder the Pink, the Marling Sloop came up with them and retook her, but the Master was carried away in the said Privateer; the Marling with the rest of the Ships was put back by contrary Winds into our Roads, and the Pink is likewise come in. And this day Her Majesty's Ships the Grayhound and Kingfale sail'd for the Northward with about 90 Sail of light Colliers, as did also the Marling Sloop and the Coasters under her Convoy. Just now a great Collier came from the Northward, who gives an account that an Ipswich Collier laden was taken with one of our Town-ships, whether they were ransom'd or not he cannot tell, for he left them having one Man kill'd.

The famous POWDER lately found out for curing the Gravel, which is now made use of instead of Tiffin's Water, being found by experience to be so much a better Medicine, hath done so many remarkable Cures since the publishing of it, that it has been sent for into many parts of England, and to Dublin in Ireland, by those that formerly bought quantities of his Water to keep by them, which they need not do of this Powder, because it not only gives ease in a quarter of an hour after the first Dose, but by taking it 5 or 6 times at the most, perfectly cures without any return of the Fit, which is what Tiffin's Water does not do (at least generally) nor any other thing that I ever heard of but this. Note, That the World may be satisfied that this is no Invention to impose upon credulous Persons to get their Money, but real matter of Fact, the Author has left an account of the Names and places of abode of several that have been cured by it, with Mr. Rogers at the Sun against St. Dunstan's Church in Fleet-street, where only this Powder is to be sold at 5 s. the Paper, in which are 3 Doses, which is generally enough for any one to take, unless very bad, and then they must take 2 Papers.
